

FACES OF LEADERSHIP

Class of 2001

Amy Capron

BASALT

RFL helped me understand that leadership takes on many forms; not always being the person on the front page or making grand speeches inspiring millions. It's about community involvement and a commitment to making where you are a better place to be. That's what leadership means to me.

HOW AMY PLUGS HERSELF INTO OUR COMMUNITY:

CURRENT:

- Town Councilor, Town of Basalt
- Board Chair, Roaring Fork Outdoor Volunteers
- Team Member, Green Team/Town of Basalt
- Volunteer, Food & Wine Magazine Classic

PAST:

- English Instructor, English as a Second Language
- Volunteer, 24 Hours of Aspen

Tuition covers 40% of our program costs.
RFL is made possible through donations from our community.

THANK YOU
