

Class of 1997

Jim Laing

ASPEN

“As a 1997 graduate of RFL, I was inspired to become more involved in our community and take personal responsibility for our collective future. Staying involved in RFL as a board member is my way of giving back to our community through the engagement of our current and future leaders and by providing them with the tools and the motivation to work together collaboratively.”

HOW JIM HAS PLUGGED HIMSELF INTO OUR COMMUNITY:

- RFL – Current Board Chair
- Roaring Fork Valley Community Health Plan
- Aspen Highlands Metro District
- Aspen Buddy Program
- Aspen Institute Community Forum

Tuition covers 40% of our program costs.
RFL is made possible through donations from our community.
